Congressman Crumpacker, of Indiana, has not yet been heard from on the race question as seen at Evansville.

A Hearst Club has been organized in Jacksonville, and the Hearst boom has taken a substantial hold on Tennessee, Arkansas and Texas.

The esteemed DeLand News failed to even chronicle the fact that E. O. Painter has resigned from the Board of Trustees of the State University.

Lets push along the old Times Union's World's Fair Bureau scheme. It is both enterprising and laudable, and deserves all the encouragement and support that Floridians can give it.

Dyed-in-the-wool American Protectionists sagely tell us that England cannot afford to abandon Free Trade. If a high protective tariff is such a good thing for America, how can it injure England?

Perhaps Governor Jennings is waiting for the return of his good friend, Dr. J. F.
Forbes, before announcing his Senatorial gratitudes. As a political pulse-feeler, that only divine is said to be a punch.

Mob vengeance upon the Rapiist grows worse with each recurrence. At Bluefield, W. Va., last week a negro who had out-skinned a 14-year-old white girl was first skinned, his tongue cut out and his body roasted by a slow fire process until life was extinct.

Fifty petitions are being circulated in Richmond (Va.) and vicinity asking for pledges of subscriptions and advertisements for a live Democratic newspaper, if William R. Hearst will establish one in that city. These petitions, it is reported, are being readily signed by large numbers of leading business men and citizens.

When a candidate for the Presidency in 1880, Gen. W. S. Hancock said that the tariff question was purely a local one and should not be thrust into national politics. He was laughed at by Republicans and blamed by Democrats. The sugar planters of Louisiana and the pine apple and tomato growers of Florida are now vindicating the Hancock idea.

Associate Justice Brewer of the United States Supreme Court expresses the unqualified opinion that every man who participates in a lynching is guilty of murder, and ought to be dealt with as a murderer. If his daughter or sister should ever have the misfortune to become the victim of a Rapiist, the distinguished judge would not doubt change his mind.

In an interview at Milwaukee the other day, Mr. Bryan declared that his only desires to see some good man nominated by the Democrats who can be depended upon to stand by Democratic principles.
He added, in substance, that he regarded the Cleveland wing of the party with suspicion. That is about the position of nine-tenths of the Democrats who were loyal to the party in the campaigns of 1896 and 1900.

J. N. C. Stockton, Senator Tallaferra, and Robt. W. Davis were invited to speak at West Palm Beach on July 4th. Davis and Tallaferra, having previous engagements, declined, but Stockton accepted the invitation. When the friends of Mr.
Flagler came face to face with this situation, for which they blamed Guy McCall, Mr. Stockton was politely asked to withdraw his acceptance and stay away from the celebration, which he very gracefully and wisely did. It was an act of discourtesy to both Stockton and McCall, since the latter had been empowered to extend the invitation and the former had accepted it in good faith. Flaglerism and anti-Flaglerism is bringing Florida politics into national disrepute. Let the two extremes alone, and advocate measures possessing business merit regardless of the men who propose them, and put forward the best men for office, whether indorsed or opposed by Flagler. When we do this, we will conserve the best interests of the whole State.

Cured Paralysis.

W. S. Bailey, P. O. True, Texas, writes:
"My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for old sores, frost bites and skin eruptions. It does the work." 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at J. M. Jones.

In a year or two all the forest lands of Florida will be purchased by turpentine men, and the time is coming when the immense pine forest of the State will be a thing of the past.—DeLand Record.

Physicians and Druggists.

Ford and Sturgeon, a prominent drug firm at Rocky Hill Station, Ky., writes:
"We were requested by Dr. G. B. Snigley to send for Herbine for the benefit of our customers. We ordered three dozen in December, and we are glad to say, Her-bine has given such great satisfaction that we have duplicated this order three times, and today we gave our salesman another order. We beg to say Dr. G. B.
Snigley takes pleasure in recommending Herbine." 50c bottle at J. M. Jones.

THE MAN HEARST AS HE IS

The Newton (Iowa) Herald was the first newspaper in the United States to suggest editorially the name of William Randolph Hearst as a desirable candidate for president.

Subsequent events, says the Herald, have made his nomination a practical necessity, and I demonstrated the judgment of the Herald as to his availability, he is the man for the office.

It is a common misconception that Mr.
Hearst owes his reputation to others. It is true that he pays the highest salaries in the United States and that he surrounds himself with the best men, but this is only an additional evidence of his wonderful capability. He is a good judge of men, and if elected to the Presidency he would surround himself with the best advisers in the country to form a Cabinet.

Mr. Hearst is a hard worker himself.
He is an able man. Not only is he a Harvard graduate, but he is far more than that—he is one of the few graduates that make a high water mark in the affairs of life. He is in some respects the most remarkable man of the age.
Born to luxury, his tastes are simple. He is intensely modest. He is never on dress parade. His wealth is utilized for the good of others. When he fights a trust he does so for the benefit of the people. He is the kind of a man the trusts like to conciliate. He is worth all most any money to them, but his sympathies are with the common people and he fights their battles for them because he is strong where they are weak.

The Herald has no disposition to paint a halo over the head of Mr. Hearst.
Rather would it picture him as he is, in the light of his own merits. He is only a man. That is the highest title in the world. He has won that title.
Nature gave to him a massive frame, a hard constitution—in short, a magnificent physique. He inherited democracy, in its largest sense, from his father, Senator Hearst, and from his mother, one of God's best, he inherited a noble manhood that looks unflinchingly on life and lives only for the good that it is possible to do for others.

The American people deserve the best there is. The Presidency calls for the noblest Roman of them all. It is time a real man was put in the Presidential chair. We need a man not merely with physical courage, though Mr. Hearst has that, but we need a man with the moral courage to do right because it is right, regardless of the pleas of nervous politicians and the threats of greed. In this Mr. Hearst has shown the backbone of a leader. He does not say "go!" He says "come!" It is his courage that is drawn upon. It is his moral force that dominates. It is his money that he spends.
It is his enemies that are made. It is his reputation that suffers among the powerful cohorts of predatory wealth.
He does not ask that others bear the shock of battle. He bares his breast to every shaft that the hosts of oppressors who are behind him may march on to a triumphant victory.

The Herald believes in the man who does things. Not bad things, but good things. There is a vast difference. We have had examples of men who do things, and we have found them to be of two kinds. One plays to the grand stand. He likes to be seen of men. He decks himself in uniform to make himself conspicuous. He shows his teeth to advertise the animal in him. If this does not convince the spectator he shoots a Spaniard in the back and boasts of it.
If this does not do the business he goes out in the wilds where animals roam and proceeds to butcher them for the pure animal gratification found in the shedding of blood.

Mr. Hearst is not this kind of a man.
He captured more Spaniards than any braggart in the army and turned them over to the naval authorities without bloodshed or the water cure. At the first signal of distress he turned his private yacht into a cruiser, armed and equipped it with men and munitions and tendered it to the government for service in behalf of Cuba. He was in the front, well up to the last battle line, while with the land forces, and was one of the first to set foot on the sunken ships of the Spanish beached upon the shore. When a beautiful Cuban girl of highest birth was imprisoned because she would not submit to the indignities of a Spanish officer, it was Hearst who dispatched men into the midst of the enemy and furnished them with means for the expedition, telling them to return with the girl at whatever cost. The maid was rescued, for it is not the Hearst nature to fail.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How to Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. If it stains your linen, it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also evidence of kidney trouble.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold water and scaling pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.
If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.
You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.
Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SEABREEZE SIFTINGS

Mr. James, of Palatka, is registered at the Beach House.

Mrs. Jessie Davis, of Holly Hill, is visiting Mrs. W. A. Aman.

Mrs. Stanford and friend, are summering in the Wigwam cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Langworthy arrived home Thursday evening.

Miss Carrie Freeman, of Macon, Ga., is now on a visit to her parents.

The mosquitoes have taken their departure and surf bathing is superior.

Mrs. Annie Webster, of Plant City, has rented the Lone Bay Hotel for the season.

The Breakers is expecting quite an influx of guests today and also on Monday.

Mrs. Russell Stubbs is looking forward this week to the pleasure of a visit from her father, T. B. Oliver, of Lake City.

Miss A. Plowman, of Chicago, will spend the summer with Mrs. A. Middleton and family at Shell cottage.

Prof. W. W. Frost, pastor of the Daytona Christian Church, has taken one of the Brown cottages for the season.

Mrs. Jones and Gaines, of Ocala, are occupying the Kissimmee cottage, and L. A. Jernigan and wife, Dr. Walker's cottage.

Mr. W. H. Baylor sold three hundred watermelons within the last ten days, which were raised on less than half an acre of peninsula soil.

Mr. Gilmore, of the Peninsula Bridge, laid a 17-pound chub without assistance this week, and the same day caught 45 pounds of snapper fish.

Mr. Daugherty is having a lively stable put up on the lot recently bought of J. C. Butler. We understand the stables will be kept by T. J. Matthew.

Judge Stewart, of DeLand, was here Monday. He says the peninsula is the garden spot of the South, and that he never misses an opportunity to enjoy its invigorating breezes.

The music for the dance at the pavilion Saturday night will be furnished by the band from Palatka, which has been engaged for the season. This will be a treat for the music-lovers as well as the dancers.

John McWilliams, banker, of Odell, Ill., is visiting friends in the city and looking after his business interests here. He was surprised and delighted to find an ideal summer resort so far south. We only need the opportunity to surprise many of our Northern friends in this way.

We would respectfully call the attention of the city fathers to the fact that the parking on the various streets need clearing of weeds and grass. It is possible that they have not noticed the rapid growth caused by the late frequent rains. Nothing is more suggestive of the prosperity and thrift of a community than well kept streets and sidewalks.

Arthur Hires, son of John Hires, the livestock man, of Goodall, met with quite a serious accident last Wednesday. Just after crossing the middle bridge, it seems that in trying to turn out, his team ran against a tree, and he was thrown from the wagon and fell on the whistle tree in such a way as to cut a deep and gaping wound in his leg. Drs. Meagley and Seelye were summoned, as the wound was of such a nature as to require surgery. The lad was borne home on a stretcher in an unconscious condition.
However, the last report is that he is doing well, and that no important arteries were severed and no bones broken.

Deadly

Grasp of Grip Prostrated Me.

Dr. Miles' Nervine
Built Up My

Shattered Nerves and Gave Me an Appetite.

Of the millions of people, who today suffer from nervous or heart weakness, a large percentage trace the cause directly to deadly LaGrippe. It is a germ disease, and makes a direct attack upon the nerves, putting an extra strain upon them at the time their vitality is at the lowest ebb. If LaGrippe has left you with a shattered nervous system, with loss of appetite, lack of energy, insomnia, frequent headaches and morbid tendencies, you should strengthen the weakened nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It will undo all that grip has done, bring back appetite, rest and restore the nerves to their normal activity.

"I want to write this testimonial for the benefit of those who have suffered from that dreaded disease—LaGrippe. I suffered several weeks with it, and nothing I tried seemed to benefit me in any way, shape or form (I suffered almost death) and finally my daughter recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine to me and I can truthfully say from the first day I felt better than in weeks. It gave me relief, built up my shattered nerves and gave me a splendid appetite. I cannot speak too highly of it and want to say, each and every one who has suffered from LaGrippe will find instant relief by getting a bottle of Dr.
Miles' Nervine. Insist on having it and take no other. It is simply splendid. Hoping this will benefit some poor sufferer I remain, —MRS. GEORGE B. HALL, Jackson, Tenn.

AS A WORKING TOOL

for the student and the writer, as an authoritative reference book for schools, families and business men, there is one book which offers superior advantages both in the solid value of its information, and the ease with which it is obtained.

One's admiration for Webster's International Dictionary increases daily as it comes to be better known. It never refuses the information sought and it never overwhelms one with a mass of misinformation illogically arranged.

The St. James Gazette of London, England, says: For the teacher, the pupil, the student and the litterateur, there is nothing better; it covers everything.

The New and Enlarged Edition recently issued has 25,000 new words and phrases, 2364 pages and 5000 illustrations.
